

XM Satellite radio is what is next for communications and entertainment in this nation. It is an idea whose time has come and the product and services they offer are wholly valued by the consumer. Please dismiss the NAB's petition number 04-160. It is an attempt to maintain the status quo and, quite frankly, the status quo is unsatisfactory. Competition is beneficial to our nation and the NAB is doing all the can to eliminate it.